FAIRFIELD COUNTY JUNIOR FAIR CAPRINE REPRESENTATIVE Application Form

All Junior Fair Exhibitors ages 14 and over (as of January 01, of the current year), actively involved with a goat project are eligible to apply for Caprine Representative. An applicant may be chosen as Caprine Representative more than once, but cannot serve consecutive years.

The Caprine Representative will be responsible for the positive promotion of goats and the Fairfield County Junior Fair within the various 4-H/FFA programs and community. This individual will assist with goat shows at the Fairfield County Fair during the year of their appointment and will give a brief discussion concerning the Junior Fair goat shows at the 4-H Panorama. Throughout the year, the Caprine Representative may be requested to make guest appearances at various community functions.

The following process will select the Caprine Representative:

*Application completed and submitted. (Applications due by Friday September 21, 2007)

*All Applications will be reviewed and the top five (5) individuals will be selected.

*The top five (5) will then participate in an interview by a panel of judges. (Interviews to take place on Thursday, September 27, 2007)

*The Caprine Representative will be selected from the individuals interviewed.

The Caprine Representative and an alternate will be notified following the completion of all interviews and will be publicly introduced at the 4-H Panorama on the Sunday evening of fair week.
