Fairfield County Pork Industry Queen Contestant:

The queen's contest will be held Thursday, September 27, at 7:00 pm at the Extension Office.

Each contestant will give a three to five minute speech on the pork industry. The specific topic is their choice. Following their speech, the judges will ask questions pertaining to the speech and the pork industry in general. After each of the contestants has given their speech, the judges will interview them individually. The queen will be announced that evening.

The Fairfield County Pork Industry Queen will then serve throughout the 2007-2008 term, including the 2007 County Fair. She will be Fairfield County's candidate in the preliminary state contest in September 2008. If she is selected as one of the top ten county pork queens, she will proceed to the Ohio Pork Industry Queen contest in February 2009, which is held at Pork Congress.

I appreciate your interest in representing our industry and hope to see you on Thursday, September 27. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 614-837-0224.

Sincerely,

Michelle Black
