

Dear Swine Ambassadors applicant:

The Fairfield County Fair is once again looking for representatives for the Swine exhibition. We will be looking for a male and/or female to represent the Swine at this year's 2019 county fair. You are invited to complete the application and return it to the Extension office by Friday, September 6, 2019. All applications will be reviewed and the strongest 6 of each will be chosen and notified of the interview date and time. A panel of judges will interview each of these contestants.

The judges will be looking for applicant's experience with swine as a project and outside of their project, knowledge of the Swine industry as well as personality, responsiveness to questions, and personal appearance. The judges will decide which applicants that they feel will best represent the Fairfield County Junior Fair Swine Show.

Eligible applicants must be 15-18 years old as of January 1, 2019, male or female, and a current 4-H or FFA member in Fairfield County and must be enrolled in the Swine project.

Responsibilities of the representatives will include presenting awards at the Junior Fair Shows, speaking during the Swine show and Panorama at the fair, and participation and appearances in 4-H or FFA activities.

The application for the Swine Ambassadors is attached and additional are available at the Extension office located at 831 College Avenue, Suite D, Lancaster. Applications should be completed and returned to the Extension office by Friday, September 6, 2019.

We are looking forward to receiving your application.
