

2016 Wasserstrom Scholarship
Administered by the Fairfield County Cattleman's Association
Guidelines and Application

The Wasserstrom Scholarship is awarded by the Fairfield County Cattleman's Association (FCCA) to honor N. Wasserstrom and Sons for their support of the beef cattle industry. One $500 scholarship will be awarded in 2016. An applicant for the scholarship must adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Applicant must currently be enrolled in a college/university, junior college, or vocational/technical school, resident of Fairfield County, and he/she or his/her parent/guardian must have been a member of the Fairfield County Cattlemen's Association during the year preceding this application.
2. Applicant must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.50. Applicant must attach a grade transcript or other form of proof of collegiate GPA (i.e. recent grade card).
3. Applicant must have completed and exhibited a market beef, beef feeder, dairy feeder and/or breeding beef project for at least four years at the Fairfield County Fair. The beef projects must have been completed either through 4-H and/or FFA.
4. Applicant must complete the following application. The application must be typed or written legibly in ink to be accepted.
5. Application must be returned to Amy Moore, 3810 Lancaster-Thornville Road, Lancaster OH 43130 no later than February 5, 2016. Applicants should expect to receive a 'confirmation of receipt' call or email from Amy shortly after she receives the application.

Selection is based on academic achievement, past and current involvement with the beef cattle industry, leadership experience, and community service involvement without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, or condition of disability. All applications will be reviewed by the FCCA Scholarship Committee and top candidates may be interviewed. The decision of the Committee is final. A certificate of award and a $500 check will be presented to the recipient at the 2016 FCCA Annual Banquet in February of 2016.
